BIGGEST CROWD OF THE SEASON GATHERS AT NEW ORLEANS FAIR GROUNDS.

Ladies Make Up Large Proportion of Those Who Enjoy Afternoon of Interesting Racing-Winners Well Supported and Layers Lose;

New Orleans, La., February 2.—What easily ranked as the largest crowd of the present meeting gathered at the Fair Grounds this afternoon. The feminine contingent outmindered that of any previous crowds on ladies' days, Included were many first-time visitors to a race track and the interest they displayed in the sport and its attending incidents was refreshing to the regulars. The weather was again ideal, the track in good shape and, as Secretary Melenian had arranged a tairly good offering, the resulting contests were spirited and keenly fought out. So dense was the crowd that nearly 25 per cent, of the spectators in the big grandstand were mable to get more than a feering glimpse of the racers as they struggled for the nurses. The Pahn Garden action was the liveliest of the meeting and as most of the wheners came in for extensive support, the fifty-odds layers who mosted odds to the individual bettors suffered a big loss.

The handrap at one mile and 50 vards operated for extensive support, the fifty-olds layers who quoted odds to the individual bettors suffered a begos.

The handicap at one mile and 70 yards engaged a quintet of useful racers and turnished a sturring striggle between Stout Heart and Yenghee. These two finished first and second half a length apart, with Impression showing the way to the others. The Warkins representative, Boxer, shewed to poor advantage in the running.

Several claims and a run-up enlivened proceedings. The first claim came when Er, Larrick, a trailer in the second race, was taken by W. H. Baker's Roscoc Goose, which led all the way after displaying a light order of speed. The closing dash brought with it the transfer of Verena back to his former owner, Iola Hogon. C. W. Campbell claimed the horse from Mr. Hogan at Charleston for $1,200. Today Verena was entered for $500 and Hogan secured him on payment of $800. The run-up came in the fifth race, when Viley was advanced from an entered price of $300 to $305. W. H. Baker did the bidding in retailation for the loss of Joe Deibold by the claiming process yesterday.

Jake Marklein's Chicinnati furnished a surprise in the opener when he took some fairly good youngsters into camp. Willie Martin won his second purse of the meeting when Kaydersseros beat a bad lot that started in the third.

Encouraging advices were received today regarding the prospects for the passage of the proposed racing bill in Arkansas.

Jockey J. U'Brien bas been engaged to ribe for W. G. Yanke and if he makes good here he will be retained for the Kenturky season.

Richwood was bought today by Robinson and Handon. New Orleans, who are anxious to join the ranks of the winning owners.

T. Olzien arrived today from El Paso with his horses, Including Calcinn, a winner at Juarez.

THE NEW ORLEANS BETTING SYSTEM.

How betting is carried on at the Fair Grounds at New Orleans is vividity described by a recent visitor from New Vock, as follows:

"After paying my admission fee to the track," he said, "I went to the upper end of the track," he said, "I went to the upper end of the track," he said, "I went to the upper end of the track, "he said, "I went to the upper end of the track," he said, "I went to the upper end of the track, "They gave me a number of an unduler of a number of men whose chance acquaintance I had nade during race meetioss at Belmout Park, Saratoga and the Englie Clly track, Over on one slide were a number of other men I did not know, who were a number of other men I did not know, who were caps with numbers on them and who were known as the bonded stakeholders. They are regular templayes of the Bushess Men's Association and it Is understood they are bonded by the association, which guarantees that any noney curristed to them will be pussed over to whosever may win a wager made on the horses.

"As usual I had an idea Rat I knew which ber employes of the Bushiess Men's Association and it is miderstood they are houded by the association, which gnarantees that any noney curristed to them will be pussed over to whosever may win a wager made on the horses.

"As usual I had an idea flat I knew which horse would win the race about to be run. I found one of the eld Forty-third Street boys who was willing to bet me at odds of 4 to 1, that I was a pretty had gnesser atout the speed of the borses engaged. I told loin I would back my belief $10 worth on the one I selected and he expressed a greedy willingness to take the wager.

"We walked over to one of these boarded stakeholders, who gave me an envelope into which I put the $10 I wagered, and my friend put in his $40. The envelope was seated in our presence and was then marked with these cabalistic figures in an up and down row like a Chinese laundry cheek. "5, 5, 1, 832." Translated into English that read that in the third race I had bet on horse No, 5 on the program to run first, and that the bet would be paid to the holder of badge $32 in case the horse won the race, while another set of cabalistics insured the race, while another set of cabalistics insured the race of his whuning. It was as easy as rolling off a log, so was the coffection; for it so hampened that in talk race I did gness the whome.

"When the race was over and the weights animomed as currect, I walked over to the chap who had taken my money, showed my bridge, and asked for my bridge, the ran over the envelopes he had, banded aline to me, and that was an end to it. Wide I was there they did not allow anyone to pay the banded stakeholder anything for his services er even slip bina at hy. It was against the roles of the track to do so. It is a system that bas the one mod in the code of the carry on such a lusiness if there is any heavy beeting, as they have to put up the cash with the odds is a question. It takes a lot of capital for them to carry on such a lusiness if there is any heavy beeting, as they have to put up the cash with out of speculating unless the layer is willing to bet on credit, and does that sort of business on the sly. Of course, if he takes that risk and loses, he cannot kick if the man he trusts neglects to make good. Any way, he has fewer worthless 'L. G. U.'s' than he would have he a few days of the promisenous credit betting, as it was carried on at the opening of the season in New York when the layers accumulated a lot of 'dead wood' that has not been paid yet, according to gossip I heard at New Orleans,"

VETERANS OF THE TRACK THAT ADDED TO THEIR WINNINGS IN 1914

The year recently closed saw the usual number of velerans of the turf—seven years old and over—in rection on American tracks. There seems to be a disposition nowadays among American owners to race letses to a greater age than in the flush days of the turf, possibly because of the conditions which have been prevailing. In accordance with its custom, Daily Racing Form herewith presents for the Information of such of its remainers as are interested in the subject a list of horses seven years old or over that added to their winnings during 1914:

PROPOSED LEGISLATION IN CALIFORNIA.

Sau Francisco, Cal., Feb. 2.—Briefly summarized the principal provisions of the bill to provide for the appointment of a state racing commission to govern racing in Colifornia, introduced in the lower house of the legislature by Assemblyman Joseph E. Marton, of San Francisco, are as follows:

Any corporation formed in California for the purpose of racing and breeding horses can conduct one or more running race meetings within each year.

Purses, prizes, premines and stakes may be of-purses, prizes, premines and stakes may be of-pursed in these rares, provided that only owners f horses entered in the races shall have an interfered in these rares, provided that only towness of horses entered in the races shall have an interest in these purses.

Only one race meeting can be held in the same county in one year, and no single meeting shall last more than thirty days.

For the purpose of regulating such racing, the bill provides for the creation of a state racing commission of three members, to serve four years, and to be appointed by the governor within twenty days after the bill goes into effect. This consides in most make a bicumial report to the state legislature in regard to racing conditions in the state.

registative in regard to racing conditions in the state.

The commission shall prescribe rules governing running race meetings, and issue licenses to racing corporations. No running races can be conducted save by corporations duly dicensed by the commission. Such licenses shall be renewed yearly, and shall be subject to revocation by the commission, with the provise that any holder of such licenses shall be entitled to submit such revocation to the course of the state for reviewing and decision as to whether it is just and merited.

Five per control of the total gate receipts of all race meetings held in the state under the travisions of the state treasury.

racing, to consist of a fine of from $500 to $1000 a day for every day such an illegithmate race meeting is conducted.

The bill was referred by Speaker Young to the committee on public morals. There is a disposition in some quarters to criticize it because it does not specifically provide for wagering. A writer connected with the sporting department of the San Francisco Chronicle says of it:

"It is evident from a brief oulline of the bill that the framer does not understand racing conditions. The bill provides for throughbred racing only, without any provisions for wagering. As a matter of fact, there is nothing to prevent running races in California now, and the bill, even if passed, would do nothing to bring back the sport on a sound business basis. Furthermore, It has not the support of the light-harness horsemen, who hoast of many influential and promhent members. In short, the bill does not seem to bave any backing from the men most interested in the sport, and little hope is placed in it. What California horsemen, both the running and tro, ting enthusiasis, are and, both the running and tro, ting enthusiasis, are and, both the running and tro, ting enthusiasis, are and, but the remaining and tro, ting enthusiasis, are and his clement. A percentage of the receipts could be deducted for the state, and the horse would come back for sport's sake alone."

The California Breeder and Sportsman, primarily devoted to the trotting horse interests of the coast, sees nothing to enthus over in the bill.

STEWARDS AT JUAREZ ANNOUNCE RESULT OF INVESTIGATION INTO CHARGES.

C. H. Knebelkamp Also Restored to Good Standing by Ruling, but Jockey J. Collins Loses His License as Result of the Affair.

El Paso, Tex., February 2.—The Juarez track was in improved condition for this afternoon's racing, thanks to a bonetical combination of warm smishine and wind. The weather was summerlike, and it being ladies' day, a big crowd journeyed to the course. The card was more attractive than at any time since the last rain fell.

After a thorough investigation into the charges made against P. T. Chinn by Jockey L. Hartwelf and against P. T. Chinn by Jockey J. Collins, the stewards of the Jockey Club Juarez today gave out the following ruling:

"After careful investigation and the examination of many witnesses, the stewards are of the ophion that the charges preferred by L. Hartwell, Jockey, against P. T. Chinn and C. H. Knebelkamp have not been sustained beyond possible doubt. Much of the testimony lutroduced both for and against the accused came from sources considered unitrastworthy, while that accepted as reliable lacked the correct corroboration essential to a positive continuation of guilt. The charges are dismissed and the suspension terminated, The fleenes of J. Collins, Jockey, is revoked.

(Signed)

Charles F. Price, John F. Ireland, W. H. Fenchler, Stewards."

The opening dash was a three and a half furlong scramble for two-year-olds and resolved itself into a struggle at the finish between J. C. Ferris' Lola and A. B. Spreckels' Mena. The former won by a neck. She was the second choice of the race, while Mrna ruled as favorite.

Hasson was well backed at long odds to win the second and win it he did in no uncertain fashion.

favorite and runner-up. Have Montgomery, by eight lengths.

In the third Quid Nune pencated a former victory in a drive with the 25 to 1 shot, Eck Davis, and was tidd up from $$300.40,$$500, by W. Phillips. He was protected and bought in for 0, 6. Parke.

Judge Ghreus was thought to have the fourth race at his mercy and was quoted at short odds, but he tritired precipitately after forcing a fast early pace and the flush found him implaned, Velle Forty, with the diminutive T. Henry In the saddle, was returned the winner over Miss Sly and Louis des Cognets, all of the trio being quoted at liberal odds. I had Davies, alded by jockey Gentry's skill, led from start to finish in the fifth, an allowance affair for three-year-olds, Laugherne was the runner-up all the way.

The closing race yielded up a winner from an mespected source in Miss Edith, quoted at 10 to 1. She beat the favorite Skinuy B., by several lengths. Starter Mars Cassidy was taken ill after sending the field away in the first race with an attack of acute indigestion. He immediately went to his apartments. The starting for the remainder of the afternoon was done by W. H. Shelley.

Hermida was claimed out of the last race yesterday by Beoker and Allen for $725.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

The repulse of German attempts to break through the allies' lines in the west. Russlan gains in the battle for the Carpathian passes and decisive defeat for the Turkish army in the Trans-Cancashan campaign are outstanding features in the war news. According to olicial amnouncement from Paris and amofficial news dispatches from the Franco-Belgian front, the kaiser's solders unde several attempts to break through the Franco-British lines between Bechme and La Bussee, but were repulsed. The official mnouncement in Paris says that the tiermans left namy dead on the field. An monificial dispatch from St. Omer tells how Scotch Highlanders won a anad-to-hand fight and drove the invaders back at the point of the bayonet. The Paris amonneement admits the blowing up by German mines of trenches in the Argonne, but declares that there was no loss. The French also officially announce the blowing up of mecompleted German trenches on the Aisne. Berlin officially makes no comment on the Aisne. Berlin officially makes no comment on the fighting in the west. The battle for the Carpathian passes along the momitainous barrier dividing Austria and Hungary, upon which fight is said to hang the result of the edite Austrian rampaign, has developed into probably the most violent condict of the war. From all accounts the advantage has turned in favor of the Russians, who have been heavily reinforced, despite the fact that General von Hindenburg has sent a large German army to assist the Austrian defenders. The chief progress of the Russians probably has been made through bukla, where, according to Petrograd dispatches, the Carl's farces are pouring into Hungary. It is admitted odicially in Berlin that the Austro-German army has been forced to rethre and take up its old positions in Fasok pass. According to a Geneva pour the Austrians sinfered an overwhelming defeat at the lands of the Russians, near Tarnow, in Galiela, 12,000 Austrians being killed, wounded or captured.
